

MARILEE COLE, MD, DTMH

Current positions:

- Professor, Department of Medicine
- Director, Tropical Medicine Elective in Cameroon

GWIM activities:

- 1994--1996 Secretary
- 1994--1997 Chair, Committee on Family Medical Leave and Part Time
- 1996--1997 Vice-President
- 1997--1999 President

Initiated development of Faculty Development Website

Initiated Mentorship Excellence Award

- 1997--1999 Chair, Leadership Equity Task Force

Equitable membership/leadership established on Transition Committees

- 1999--2006 Executive Board

GUH service:

- 1992--1994 Internal Medicine Female Faculty Task Force/Committee
- 1995--2006 Female Medical Student Mentorship Program
- 2000--2006 Physician Shadowing Program
- 2000--2006 Tropical Medicine/International Health Advisory

Teaching:

- 1984--1994 Clinical Preceptor, General Internal Medicine Clinic for Georgetown University Hospital (GUH) Medical Students
- 1995--2006 Outpatient/Inpatient Clinical Preceptor, Teaching Attending for GUH Internal Medicine Residents
- 1996,1999 Acute Diarrhea, Chronic Diarrhea chapters, Saunders's Manual of Medical Practice
- 2000—2006 Clinician Educator, Tropical Medicine Elective in Cameroon for GUH Internal Medicine Residents, Bango Hospital, Kumbo, Cameroon
- Invited Tropical Medicine Lectures, 2000—2006
Bango Hospital, Kumbo, Cameroon; Georgetown University Hospital, Washington, D. C.; Arlington Hospital, Arlington, Virginia; London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, London, England; MTCT-Plus Course, Bamenda, Cameroon; Mbingo Hospital, Mbingo, Cameroon

Clinical Interests:

- Tropical Medicine in Developed and Developing Countries
- HIV/AIDS Management in Africa
- Combining Career and Family in Academic Medicine

Recent Research Grant:

2004--2007 "MTCT-Plus Initiative" Paid Consultant for $650,000 HIV/AIDS Antiretroviral Therapy Implementation and Patient Care Project for CBCHB from Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University

Recent Research:

- Cole, M. A Comparison Between the Antiretroviral Treatment Program at BBH and MBH, 2002-2004
- Cole, M. Correlation between CD4 Count and Total Lymphocyte Count in HIV-Infected Cameroonian Patients Presenting for Antiretroviral Therapy
- Taylor, K., Cole, M., Toporowicz, M., and Friedman, R. The Society for Medical Women Faculty at Georgetown University Medical Center: 10 Years of Achievements and Challenges
- Cole, M. Should Amodiaquine Be Used As Malaria Prophylaxis in Pregnancy?
- Cole, M. Re-evaluation of HAART Data at BBH and MBH: A Comparison of BBH to MBH before (MBH-1) and after (MBH-2) Initiation of the 2003 Formal MBH HAART Program
- Sorensen, A., Cole, M., Welty, T. Usage of Malaria Prophylaxis in Pregnancy: CBCHB Study Findings

Public Service:

- 2000--2006 Volunteer physician at Banso Mission Hospital, Cameroon
- 2001 HIV/AIDS Treatment Protocol created for Cameroon NGO
- 2002 HIV/AIDS Fellowship for Cameroon MD, GUH

Other:

- 1999 Putting Your Stamp on History, Georgetown University's Dahlgren Medical Library feature for Women's History Month
- July/August, 2003 Fulfilling a Mission, GU's Blue and Gray
- October, 2003 A Volunteer in Africa, WAMU FM'S Georgetown Forum
- June, 2004 Alumni Hall of Fame Inductee, for GWIM and Cameroon Tropical Medicine Activities, Towson High School, Towson, Maryland
- December, 2004 The John Eisenberg, MD, MBA, Memorial Career Development Award, from GWIM

